

Foodservice, Bar & Hospitality Sample E-Communications to Employees

If you have any questions, please contact CORE at info@coregives.org

Sample #1: Email to Send to Employees During COVID-19 Pandemic

Subject Line: Valuable Resource for Operations Active and Furloughed Employees with Children — CORE: Children of Restaurant Employees

Email Body:

Resources are available for restaurant, bar operations employees with children when either the parent or child faces a health crisis, medical diagnosis, injury, death, or natural disaster through an industry non-profit, CORE: Children of Restaurant Employees. If you have COVID-19 or under medical orders to quarantine, you may also qualify.

Documentation is required and they may be able to help provide financial support and cover expenses such as rent/mortgage, utilities, basic necessities and other medical related costs. Furloughed employees may be able to qualify if you meet the CORE application criteria.

For more information or to apply, visit: www.COREgives.org. A family can also be referred online if you know a team member that may qualify.

Sample Email #2: Email to Send to Employees After COVID-19 Pandemic

Subject Line: Valuable Resource for Operations Employees with Children — CORE: Children of Restaurant Employees

Email Body:

Resources are available for restaurant operations employees with children when either the parent or child faces a health crisis, medical diagnosis, injury, death, or natural disaster through an industry non-profit, CORE: Children of Restaurant Employees. Documentation is required and they may be able to help provide financial support and cover expenses such as rent/mortgage, utilities, basic necessities and other medical related costs.

For more information or to apply, visit: www.COREgives.org. A family can also be referred online if you know a team member that may qualify.